

The Daily Courant.

Monday, September 22. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 24.
Madrid, Sept. 6.

THE Queen is very well, and has begun to sit up. The Prince of Asturias is likewise in perfect Health. The News of his Birth has been receiv'd every where with Demonstrations of extraordinary Joy. At Saragossa Te Deum was sung the 31st of last Month, in Presence of the Nobility and of the Officers of the City, in the Church of San Salvador. Several Salvoes of Artillery were made, and Bonfires and Illuminations which were to be continued 9 Days. The Archbishop of Saragossa perform'd the same Ceremony, and officiated pontifically in the Church of our Lady of Pilar, where the Count de Xerena President and the Officers of the Chancery assisted, with a great Concourse of the Nobility. Don Antonio del Valle has caus'd Te Deum to be sung at Valencia, where all Manner of Rejoycings were made. Deputies from Burges have waited on the King, to compliment him on the Birth of the Prince, being introduc'd by the Constable of Castile; as have those from Seville by the Duke of Medina Sidonia; and those of Salamanca, Segovia, and Avila, by the Count de Benavente, the Marquis d'Aguilar, and the Count de Sant-Itevan. All those Cities have made Presents to the Prince; and Don Manuel Arias Archbishop of Seville, has of his own Accord sent him one of 1000 Pistoles. Letters from Balaguer have brought the Particulars of what pass'd in a Forrage which the Duke of Orleans caus'd to be made, and in which by the good Conduct and Valour of his Royal Highness, the Enemy who had plac'd in Ambush behind Belcayre the Regiments of Horse of Morras, Saragossa, Sobias, and Nebot, and 2 of Portuguese, in a Wood near Linnola, to fall upon our Forragers, were repuls'd with the Loss of above 300 Men kill'd, besides 150 Soldiers taken Prisoners, and 6 Officers, among which are the Collonel and Lieutenant Collonel of the Regiment of Saragossa, who will be treated as Rebels and Deserters. Brigadier Don Joseph de Chaves, since the taking Bozayrente, has besieged Alcoy; and the Town of Consentayna and all its Dependancies, have sent Deputies to his Camp, to make their Submission. 1500 Miquelets who attempted to throw Succours into Alcoy, were defeated, and many of them kill'd or made Prisoners. The Chevalier d'Hasfelt has taken the Town of Chert, in the Neck of the Mountains of Morella; 35 Miquelets were kill'd in the Attack; 6 that were taken, were hang'd at San-Matheo. Letters from Oran of the 14th of August advise, that the Moors having for some Days cannonaded without Execution the Castle of St. Philip, in which is a Garrison of 430 Men, advanc'd the 9th to attack an advanc'd Work: But a small Mine that had been provided, was sprung at the same Time so very opportunely, that it blew up about 200; which made the rest to retire in Disorder.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 27.

Madrid, Sept. 10. The King has order'd, that the Prince of Asturias shall be shewn to the Populace from the Balconies of the Palace twice a Day till the 18th of this Month and no longer.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 23.

Seville, Aug. 29. The 27th the Duke of Ossuna went post through this City for Madrid. The King desires our Clergy to furnish him with 500000 Pieces of Eight, for carrying on the War against Portugal. Last Night arriv'd a Courier from Madrid, with the agreeable News of the Queen's being brought to Bed of a Prince; which occasions unspeakable Joy here.

Pampelona, Sept. 9. The 7th the Duke of Berwick, accompanied by many Officers, pass'd through this Place for the Army under the Duke of Orleans; where he proposes to arrive by the 14th.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 27.

Saragossa, Sept. 12. All the Forrage that can be got in Arragon, is sent to the Segra, for the Army of the Duke of Orleans, which is in Motion towards Lerida. There is in that Town a Garrison of about 4000 Men, with 60 Pieces of Cannon, and Plenty of Ammunition and Provisions. The Place is very strong, and the Ditches very broad and 8 Foot deep.

Cadix, Aug. 30. Two French Frigates have taken in fresh Provisions here, with which they sail'd Yesterday to joyn the Squadron of 7 French Men of War that is cruising off the Mouth of the Tagus. Letters from Ceuta of the 25th Instant, tell us, that the Moors who lye before that Place, tho' considerably reinforc'd of late, forbore to make any vigorous Attempt. They had Advice at Ceuta from Oran, that the Moors who lye before that Place, made a 2d Assault the 18th Instant on the Castle of St. Philip, but were repuls'd with very great Loss. Last Night an Express arriv'd from Madrid, with Advice that the Queen was brought to bed of a Prince the 25th Instant. Whereupon, to Day, all the Bells were rung, Bonfires made, and all the Houses illuminated, which will be continued for some Days. The said Express has brought Orders for the 2 Advice-Ships that lye ready to sail for the West-Indies, and which will depart this Week or the beginning of the next for New Spain.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 24.

Paris, Sept. 24. Letters from Balaguer in Catalonia of the 4th Instant, advise, that the Night between the 31st past and the 1st Instant, the Duke of Orleans march'd from thence with 18 Battallions and 50 Squadrons, to fight the Enemy encamp'd 4 Leagues from thence, or force them to repass the Mountains. Being oblig'd to march through a Plain, he was discover'd, and found the Enemy in Battalia, who retir'd over the Mountains 8 Leagues from their former Camp. 200 of their Oxen were taken, and the Duke of Orleans encamp'd in a Country abounding with Forrage, fixing his Head Quarter at Belpuch, whence not one Inhabitant had retir'd, because his Royal Highness had caus'd an Amnestie to be publish'd. The 3d his Royal Highness was taken with a Fever, which oblig'd him to return the 6th to Balaguer; but it went off agen. The 9th he sent to invest Lerida; the rest of the Army march'd the 10th in the Evening; and his Royal Highness was to be there the 11th.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 27.

Paris, Sept. 23. All the Ministers of State that were left at Versailles, are sent for by the King to Fontainebleau; where the Court is taken up with finding out Means for carrying on the War next Year. 'Tis advis'd from Brest, that the 6 Men of War, mention'd in our former, are ready to sail from thence to meet (as is said) the Spanish Gallies. Letters from the Camp of Balaguer of the 10th, say the Duke of Orleans had caus'd Lerida to be invested by his whole Army consisting of 25000 Men; and that the Trenches were open'd the 13th. They write from Fontainebleau, that the King had receiv'd Advice of a successful Sally made by the Garrison of Gaeta.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 24.

Paris, Sept. 24. M. Stephen le Camus, Cardinal Priest

Priest having the Title of St. Mary of the Angels, Bishop of Grenoble, Doctor of Sorbonne, is dead in his Diocels, which he govern'd with exemplary Piety 36 Years, without going out of it, except to the 2 last Conclaves, since he was Bishop. He was in the 76th Year of his Age, and was made a Cardinal in 1686. We have Advice, that the Count d'Avejan, Lieu enant General of the King's Armies, Commander of his Majesty's Troops in Nancy, Governor of Furnes, and Grand-Cross of the Order of St. Louis, died the 17 h of this Month. M. Dominick Macguirre Archbishop of Armagh, Primate of Ireland, died some Days ago in the College of Lombards in this City: He was of the Order of St. Dominick, and in his 76th Year. Letters from Brest of the 14th, say M. du Guay Trouin was come in there with 3 Dutch Prizes, 2 of which were from Surinam loaded with Sugar and other Goods.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 23.

Milan, Sept. 10. We have Advice from Genoa, that Preparations are making for the Confederate Fleet to transport to Barcelona a considerable Body of Foot, of which King Charles III is in most Want. We are assur'd that Prince has 10000 Horse and 15000 Foot, and that his Forces augment daily by the Desertion of Spanish Soldiers who take on in his Service. We have Advice also, that the Garrison of Alicant had surpriz'd Sifana, and made the Garrison Prisoners of War. The Count de Galgas, who is Brother of the Duke de l'Infantado, and is made General of the Gallies of Spain, set out from hence on Wednesday last, to carry to the Princess of Wolfembuttel, Bride of King Charles, a Present of Jewels sent her by his Catholick Majesty. A magnificent Toilette is making at Genoa for that Princess. The City of Barcelona is at all the Cost of it.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Sept. 27.

Neuremberg, Sept. 20. The Court of Vienna is somewhat disturb'd at the Alliance made between the Pope, the Republick of Venice, the Duke of Tuscany and other Princes. The Court is likewise impatient to know what Answer the Pope has return'd to the Propositions made by Cardinal Grimani touching the Pope's Excommunication of the Emperour's Minister, General Officers, &c, concern'd in the Agreement for Contributions made in the Dutchy of Parma.

From the Camp at Helchin, Sept. 26. Our Army still continue in this Camp, and the Enemy in theirs. Last Week Deputies came from Ghent, and other Cities in Flanders, to wait on the Duke of Marlborough, to receive his Grace's Directions relating to Winter-Quarters.

Hague, Sept. 23. The 20th Instant the Imperial Resident had a Conference of 2 Hours with the Deputies of the States. He has obtain'd, that the 7000 Palatines which are in Piemont in the Pay of Great Britain and of this State, shall be transported to Catalonia: As the Consent of the Elector Palatine was necessary for this purpose; the Count de Lecheraine first mov'd it to him, and Secretary Zinzerling prevail'd with him to agree to it. Yesterday the Imperial Resident and Secretary Sinzerling went from hence to Flanders, to acquaint the Duke of Marlborough with the Success of their Negotiation here.

Hague, Sept. 27. The Duke of Marlborough is expected here next Week, it being advis'd from the Army that his Grace designs to leave it the 5th of October. We hear, that the Affair of transporting the 7000 Palatines to Catalonia, will be finally settled with the Duke of Marlborough at the Army: And 'tis talk'd 3 Regiments of Imperialists will be added to those Palatines. Signior Benedetto Viale, Envoy of Genoa, had his Audience of Leave of the States to Day, and is preparing to go over to England.

Whereas Richard Tiller, Servant to Captain Edward's, Ran away from his Service on Thursday the 18th of this Instant in the Morning, and carried with him things of value; he is about 20 Years of Age, with his own short curl'd black Hair, wearing a sad-colour Capitation Coat, and Druggert Waistcoat.
